

August 8, 2019

WATCH. EAT. LEARN
TORONTO FOOD FILM FEST ANNOUNCES 2019 EVENT SCHEDULE
Tickets On Sale Now at www.torontofoodfilmfest.com

PROGRAMMING HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

North American Premiere of Director Miguel Ángel Jiménez's 'A God in Each Lentil' is the opening night Featured Presentation on 10/04

Beer Tasting Session lead by Peat Brothers of Longslice Brewery ft. specialty brew on 10/04

#WasteNot: Sustainability in the Food Industry Panel on 10/04

Canadian Premiere of Lynn Hamrick's 'Hiro's Table' screening with 'Red Chef Revival/Episode 3 Prince Rupert' on 10/05

Toronto Premiere of Abby Ainsworth's 'STAGE: The Culinary Internship' is the closing night Featured Presentation on 10/05

ReThink Resource to divert waste throughout festival.

Toronto Food Film Fest and The Depanneur will bring exciting meals and workshops featuring local chefs and seasonal ingredients to be announced in early September.

Toronto – the Toronto Food Film Fest launches October 4th, 2019! Reserve your seat at Toronto's only multi-day food film festival. Don't miss your chance to screen mouth-watering, thought-provoking, conversation-starting independent films about food from around the world. Curated snacks paired with every screening, panels, workshops and meals make this event your best excuse to wear sweatpants - two days in a row.

Toronto Food Film Fest is truly a celebration of independent filmmaking, food and culture!

The Festival's opening night feature presentation and North American Premiere of A God in Each Lentil. Beer Tasting Session lead by Peat Brothers of Longslice Brewery ft. specialty brew on Friday Oct 4th during happy hour. The premieres continue with the Canadian premiere of Hiro's Table (Oct 5th) and the Toronto premiere of STAGE: The Culinary Internship as the closing night feature presentation. Throughout the festival ReThink Resource will be diverting waste from the landfill.

Toronto Food Film Fest and The Depanneur will bring exciting meals and workshops featuring local chefs and seasonal ingredients to be announced in early September.

TICKETING INFORMATION

Event tickets are on sale now at <https://www.torontofoodfilmfest.com/tickets>. Discounted tickets for seniors, students. Group rates are also available.

ABOUT THE TORONTO FOOD FILM FEST

Toronto Food Film Fest is truly a celebration of independent filmmaking, food and culture! Toronto has a huge appetite for new experiences, and we want to invite everyone to share our table.

There are six fabulous film screenings from local and international filmmakers, 15+ speakers participating in workshops, panels and talks, 10+ unique food experiences, all making 1 amazing celebration!

Partnered with The Depanneur we offer intimate cooking classes and meals where chefs share their stories beyond the plate.

Thought-provoking panels like '#WasteNot: Sustainability in the Food Industry' showcase passionate speakers Michelle Ganttner of Unboxed Market, Ryan Crawford of Backhouse, Shane Harker of ReThink Resource and John Morris of 360 The Restaurant at the CN Tower, tell their stories and reveal the revolutionary sustainable practices they are implementing to make a positive environmental impact on the global food supply system. Trust us when we say each one of these talented individuals is doing some really cool shit.

When your event is only two days, you have to make every moment a celebration! So, of course there will be one kick ass closing party that you won't want to be miss.

THE LOCATION & DATES

The festival will take place on Oct 4th and 5th, 2019 in the Little Italy neighbourhood of Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Screenings will be held at the historical Royal Cinema in Little Italy (608 College St.)

Food themed workshops and dining experiences will be served at The Depanneur (1033 College St.), beer and wine tastings will be served at The Emmet Ray (924 College St.) and our panels and the closing party will be presented at Super Wonder Gallery (584 College St.).

Follow the Toronto Food Film Fest

www.torontofoodfilmfest.com

Instagram | Twitter | Facebook

PARTNERS

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For more information regarding the Toronto Food Film Fest, please give us a shout!

info@torontofoodfilmfest.com